Claire and I just wanted to say to all in the church family a massive thank you for your generosity and kindness in being behind so much of the surprise party on Saturday. Your thoughtfulness, care and support means a great deal, and the party, gifts – flowers, memory book, car picture, chocolates, cards, hotel gift, financial gift, banner, balloons, food, hog roast, music, cake, guest list has humbled us. We cannot thank you enough. 20 years have flown by and I'm not sure why God seems to not be wanting a next step at the moment. I think that in a few people's minds I will forever be "the pastor who took the pews out!" But I hope it's far more than that in truth. Thank you for being a part of this 20 year journey and for encouraging and supporting our family and us along the way.

Sam and Claire
